Re: 15-80004-jw

The Summons issued by this office is enclosed to be attached to a copy of the complaint you filed and both are to be served by you on the defendant(s) named in the complaint. The summons must be served within seven (7) days of issuance. Within seven (7) days of service, please file an affidavit or certificate of service with this Court pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(l) and District of South Carolina Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-3 specifying the names and addresses of the parties served. Part VII of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure governs adversary proceedings. Your attention is especially called to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7004 and the applicable provisions of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4 regarding time limits for service (Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7004(e)) and dismissal for failure to make service (Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m)). Should this adversary proceeding involve the United States of America or a federal agency or officer as a defendant, you are directed to serve a copy of your summons and complaint upon all of the following:

- a. The agency(ies) and/or officer(s) named as a defendant.
- b. United States Attorney for S.C.
For: (list the federal agency(ies) and/or officer(s) named as defendant(s))
1441 Main Street, Suite 500
Columbia, SC 29201
- c. The Attorney General of the United States
Civil Division, Bankruptcy Section
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, DC 20530

THE PLEADING MUST SPECIFICALLY IDENTIFY THE FEDERAL AGENCY INVOLVED.

Please review Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7012 and the applicable provisions of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12. If the summons and complaint are properly served and you do not receive an answer or a motion under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12 from the defendant or one or more of the defendants within 30 days of the date of issuance of the enclosed summons, the defendant(s) will be considered in default. If this happens, it will be your responsibility as the plaintiff to file an affidavit pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55(a) showing the defendant(s) have failed to plead or otherwise defend and a motion for default judgment pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55(b). If, however, the defendant(s) answer(s) the complaint within the prescribed time period, a pretrial conference will be scheduled and parties will be so notified. If the defendant(s) file(s) Rule 12 motion(s), you will be provided a deadline for responding to the motion(s), and the Court will set the motion(s) for hearing or rule on the motion(s) without a hearing.

Very truly yours,

LAURA A. AUSTIN Clerk of Court
